

THE
DUBLIN REVIEW.

76

VOL. XXIV. NEW SERIES.

JANUARY—APRIL,

MDCCCLXXV.

PUBLIC LIBRARY,

DETROIT, MICH.

SEP 17 1888

LONDON:

BURNS, OATES, & CO., 17 & 18, PORTMAN STREET,

AND 63, PATERNOSTER ROW,

DERBY: RICHARDSON & SONS.

DUBLIN: JAMES DUFFY; W. B. KELLY; McGLASHAN & GILL.

BALTIMORE: KELLY, PIET & CO.

MONTREAL, CANADA: D. & J. SADLER & CO.

1875.

LONDON

WYMAN AND SONS, PRINTERS, GREAT QUEEN STREET,
LINCOLN'S INN FIELDS, W.C.

CONTENTS.

ART. I.—PRUSSIAN LAW AND THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

The present trial of the Church presents no new features	1
Prince Bismarck's attack upon the Church not altogether unexpected	2
Prussian aggression really commenced about sixty years ago	5
Slight relaxation by Frederick William IV.	6
Causes of the present severe measures	8
The programme of the liberal party	13
The Bishop of Mainz on the liberal programme	18
Remarks on the Prussian Church Laws	19
The moderation of the later utterances of the Holy See	24
Dogmatic ignorance of the liberal party in church matters	25

ART. II.—BISHOP PECOCK, HIS CHARACTER AND FORTUNES.

Interesting character of the times preceding the Reformation	27
Bishop Pecock's eventful career	28
Memoir of his early life	29
His citation for heresy	31
His recantation	32
He appeals to Rome, but his appeal is ignored	33
His mysterious disappearance	36
The "Repressor"	36
The argument of that work	38
Bishop Pecock's orthodoxy	45
Analysis of the charges against his orthodoxy	46
Though his orthodoxy was substantial, his expressions were sometimes ill-advised	50
His liberalism one cause of his unpopularity	54
The cruel nature of his treatment	55

ART. III.—GNOSTICISM AND THE RULE OF FAITH.

Effects of conflict with Gnosticism	56
Gnosticism marks an epoch in the history of the Church	57
Results of historical investigation on this epoch identify the cause of Christianity and of the Catholic Church	59

S. Irenæus the foremost of the anti-Gnostic Fathers	6
His claims to speak for the whole Church of his day	61
Method pursued in this article	62
Meaning of the word "Gnosticism"	63
The Eastern Gnostics	66
The Alexandrian Gnostics	68
The Gnosticism of Marcion	74
Gnosticism a rebellion against the rule of faith	75
Different lines of defence taken by the Fathers	77
The appeal of S. Irenæus to the rule of faith	78
This rule of faith threefold, each of its parts resting on the same historical evidence	81
Sufficiency and necessity of the evidence given by S. Irenæus for the New Testament canon	82
Irrational to accept him as a witness for the New Testament and to reject him as evidence for the authority of tradition	85
Or of the Church as the interpreter of Scripture and tradition	99
Or of the Episcopate as the teaching body in the Church	104
Or of the Holy See as the centre of the Church's unity	106
Answer to objections on this last point	109
Summary of results	113

ART. IV.—MUSIC AND PLAIN CHANT.

Place of Plain Chant in the public worship of the Church	113
Place of Music properly so called	116
Functions of Plain Chant and Music respectively	121
"Theatrical" and "sensational" Music	125

ART. V.—REPLIES TO LORD ACTON.

General drift of Lord Acton's letters paraphrased	127
The Case of S. Pius V.	130
The Case of Fénelon	143
The Case of Urban VI.	148

ART. VI.—BERMUDA.

Discovery and climate of the Bermudas	154
Their scenery and soil	157
Animal life	159

Geological history of the Bermudas	161
Their government	166
Catholics in the islands	167

ART. VII.—MR. GLADSTONE'S EXPOSTULATION.

The Protestant distrust of Catholicity is reasonable from the Protestant point of view	170
But the Vatican Definitions have no legitimate tendency to increase that distrust	177
Mr. Gladstone's references to Bishop Doyle	179
Catholic doctrine on the relations between Church and State	182
Mr. Gladstone on the term "ex cathedra"	190
The Catholic's patriotism	191
The Catholic's civil allegiance	193
Appendix on the Bull "Unam Sanctam"	201

NOTICES OF BOOKS.

Contemporary Review , December, 1874: Article on Necessary Truth	209
Bishop Ullathorne's Mr. Gladstone's Expostulation Unravell'd	209
Dr. Newman's Letter to his Grace the Duke of Norfolk, on occasion of Mr. Gladstone's recent Expostulation	211
F. Coleridge's Life of our Life	215
Johannis Maldonati Commentarii in IV. Evangelistas	216
Our Lady's Dowry; or, How England gained and lost that title.	217
F. Harper's Peace through the Truth	221
The Vatican Decrees and Catholic Allegiance	221
The Syllabus for the People	221
The Liberal Party and the Catholics	222
Mr. John Stuart Mill's Three Essays on Religion	223
Mr. Lilly's Characteristics from the Writings of John Henry Newman	223
Count Henry d'Ideville's Rome and her Captors	228
The Bishop of Orleans' Letter to M. Minghetti, Italian Minister of Finance	230
Rev. F. Gibson's Catechism made Easy	239
Miss Irving's Passages of Historic Life	240
Mr. Minto's Characteristics of English Poets from Chaucer to Shirley	241
Dr. Arnold's Islam and Christianity	242
Rev. F. Avancinus's Meditations on the Life and Doctrine of Jesus Christ	244
Rev. F. Causette's S. Bernard and his Work	244

Regina Sæculorum ; or, Mary Venerated in all Ages	246
Mgr. Patterson's Jesus Christ the Model of the Priest. . . .	246
The Children's Bible History for School and Home Use	247
Rev. F. Anderdon's Afternoons with the Saints	247
Rev. F. Thimelby's Purgatory Surveyed	249
Mr. Digby Beste's Sermon on Priestly Absolution	250
Rev. F. Macleod's Perfect Lay Brother	252
Mr. Morris's Prisoners of the Temple	253

CONTENTS.

CARDINAL MANNING.

Site of the Church of S. Gregory	255
Peculiar propriety of the Cardinal's title	257
M. Lemoigne on the Event	278
List of the English Cardinals	278
Cardinal Manning's career	263
His influence with Englishmen in general	265
The question of Precedence	266
The Cardinals of the peoples	267
Cardinal Manning at the University College	269

ART. I.—MIRACLES: THE OBJECTIONS AGAINST THEIR POSSIBILITY AND ANTECEDENT PROBABILITY.

The Author of "Supernatural Religion" attacks Revelation through Miracles	271
He regards Miracles as the only sufficient evidence for Christianity	272
Character of diabolical Miracles	273
Different nature of Christian Miracles	274
Miracles in relation to Nature	275
Dr. Mozley's Sixth Lecture	276
Mr. Spencer on man's ultimate perfection	279
Chapter on reason and the order of Nature	280
Hume's Arguments based upon Tillotson	287
Chapter on the Age of Miracles	294
General character of the author's treatment of his subject	302

ART. II.—FAIR PLAY IN LITERATURE—WILLIAM AND ROBERT CHAMBERS.

The spirit of fair play not yet dead in England	305
Slandorous nature of Protestant school-books	306
Impartial character of Messrs. Chambers's publications	311
Particularly of the Encyclopædia	312
The article on "Indulgences"	313

And that on "Image-worship"	315
On the "Temporal Sovereignty"	316
On Fénelon's theory of the temporal power	319
On Concordats	321
General feeling of congratulation for the consideration shown by the writers of the articles on religious subjects	323

ART. III.—BISHOP FESSLER ON INFALLIBILITY.

Dr. Schulte's understanding of the Vatican Definition.	323
Bishop Fessler's reply to him	325
Bishop Fessler's doctrine on the Catholic's obligation of interior assent to teaching not strictly infallible	329
Bishop Fessler's doctrine on the Pope's power of defining ex cathedrâ non-revealed truths connected with the Deposit	332
Bishop Fessler's doctrine on the Pope's power of pronouncing minor doctrinal censures ex cathedrâ	334
Bishop Fessler's doctrine on the requisite notes of an ex cathedrâ Act	335
Bishop Fessler's doctrine on the frequency of ex cathedrâ Acts	338
Authority of the Syllabus	340

ART. IV.—THE USE AND ABUSE OF RITUAL.

Mixed feelings on reading Mr. Gladstone's article in the "Contem- porary Review"	346
Symbolism recognized in all our ceremonies	348
Alarm at the first introduction of ritualism.	349
Mr. Gladstone's opinion of the chief end of ritualism	350
The temporising policy of its opponents	351
The principle of Catholic ritualism	352
The Church's protest against its abuse	354
The effective character of the Church's ceremonies	354
What is to be the end of the ritualistic movement in the English Church	355
Evidently it will cause the dissolution of the Establishment and a reunion with the Catholic Church	356

ART. V.—SUPERNATURAL RELIGION.

Contrast between "Supernatural Religion" and the negative criticism of Germany.	357
A review of the positive evidence for the Gospels best adapted for exhibiting the uncritical character of "Supernatural Religion"	358

Statement of principles and division of the Gospels under three Periods	359
First Period	361
Evidence of S. Irenæus, Clement of Alexandria, and Tertallian	364
Church of Vienne and Lyons	366
Muratorian Canon	371
Tatian	374
Second Period	379
S. Justin, Valentinus, Marcion	381
Third Period	400
Papias, Epistle of Barnabas, Ignatian Epistles	404
Recapitulation of Evidence	408
Characteristics of "Supernatural Religion"	409

ART. VI.—THE PROTESTATION OF 1789 AND THE IRISH CATHOLIC OATH.

Character of a Series of Letters addressed by "an Irish Catholic" to the Spectator	412
First Letter on the Protestation	414
Encyclical of 1791	421
Oath Proposed by Mr. Mitford	422
Oath adopted by Parliament	424
Infallibility Clause of the Protestation	425
An Irish Catholic's defence of his letters on the Protestation	426
His letter on the conduct of the Irish Catholics	429
The Irish oath of 1793	435
The oath of 1829	436
Mr. Gladstone's quotation from Bishop Baines	437

ART. VII.—DAYS NEAR ROME.

Excellent spirit of Mr. Hare's book	439
Charming towns near Rome	440
Destruction of the beauties of Rome by the new Government	441
The Campagna	442
The Sabine Hills	446
Ninfa	447
Alatri and Anagni	449
The Colonna country	450
Soracte	452

ART. VIII.—MR. GLADSTONE AND HIS CATHOLIC CRITICS.

Mr. Gladstone's three chief Catholic critics	454
Stress laid by Mr. Gladstone on the dogma of Papal infallibility	455
The Catholic argument for that dogma	456

Mr. Gladstone's objections successively considered	404
The Council of Constance	408
Practical results of Papal infallibility	477
Mediæval Popes, in proportion to their unworldliness, would be more eager to exercise their divinely given authority in matters prima- rily temporal	480
The same principles would lead a Pope of modern times to abstain from intervention with the civil ruler	481
The Holy See has not the same right of exercising authority over the modern political world which she had over mediæval Christen- dom	486
The Bull "Unam sanctam"	488
The modern liberties have not been condemned as existing in countries which have lost unity of faith	493
Instances adduced by Mr. Gladstone of Pius IX.'s intervention in things temporal	494
Mr. Gladstone's fixed idea on the Pope meditating violent measures for the recovery of his civil principedom	497
The Syllabus and Vatican Definitions were not projected for the pur- pose of facilitating such measures.	499
Mr. Gladstone on the Pope's Supremacy	502
Hearty attachment of Catholics to the English laws and constitution .	504
Appendix in reply to Mr. Gladstone's theological assault on Cardinal Manning	504

NOTICES OF BOOKS.

The "Contemporary Review," March 1875.	510
Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster's Internal Mission of the Holy Ghost	510
Mr. Allies' Formation of Christendom	513
Canon Neville's Comments on Mr. Gladstone's Expostulation	516
Dr. Kavanagh's Reply to Mr. Gladstone's Vaticanism	519
Rev. Mr. Wenham's Readings from the Old Testament	522
Mr. Dods' Works of S. Augustine	523
Rev. F. Spencer's Life of S. Paul of the Cross	526
Stories of the Saints for Children	529

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Bishop of Birmingham's Reply to Mr. Gladstone	530
The Sovereignty in Modern States	530
Brief of the Holy Father to M. Charles Perin	535